

Index

Note: Page references followed by an italic f or t indicate information contained in figures and tables, respectively

- academic interests vs. policy interests, 62–66
- access, to education, 1–2
- accountability, 41–43, 69, 121–122, 131
- active research programs, 30–31
- adaptive instruction, 34–38, 38–44, 234n29
- adoption, textbook, 144, 147*t*, 148, 256n18
- Alexander, Lamar, 48
- American Educational Research Association (AERA), 5, 172
- apprenticeships, 2

- behaviorism, 164
- Bell, Terrell, 26
- “The Blind Men and the Elephant” (Saxe), 1
- Boehner, John, 53
- boundary objects, 223–224
- Bransford, John, 16–17, 209–227
- Breakthrough* (Fullan, Hill, Crevola), 37–38, 235n41
- Bridgman, Percy, 173
- Brown v. Board of Education*, 47
- Bryk, Tony, 45
- businesses, and schools. See for-profit providers, educational

- California, 58–59, 65–66, 144–145
- Carroll, John B., 29
- categorical funding, 144–145

- Charlottesville Education Summit (1989), 26
- charter schools, 146
- Children as Pawns* (Hasci), 54
- choice. See school choice
- class size research, 56–59
- classroom coping strategies, 99–100
- clinical expertise, 10
- Clinton, Bill, 48
- Coburn, Cynthia, 14, 67–87, 213–214, 215, 218, 224
- cognitive sciences, 139–140
- Cohen, Michael, 49–53
- Coleman Report, 24–25, 37, 213, 215
- collaboration, 102–103, 201–205, 202*f*
- Conant, James, 23
- Consortium for Policy Research in Education (CPRE), 64–65, 66
- constructivism, 174–175
- content exposure, 29
- Corcoran, Thomas, 15, 65, 111–135, 219–220
- curriculum, national, 192, 203
- Curriculum and Evaluation Standards for School Mathematics*, 166–167
- curriculum frameworks, 42, 236n41

- Department of Education, U.S.
 - What Works Clearinghouse, 6–7
- Diagnoser (software), 140–141
- differentiated instruction. See adaptive instruction
- districts, school. See also local control, of education
 - encouraging evidence use in, 81–85
 - and for-profit providers, 139
 - and nonprofits, 115–116

- districts, school, continued research access and types, 69–70 research availability, 70–71 and research use, 67–69, 86–87, 213–214 research’s role in decisionmaking, 74–81, 240n28 school governance and finance issues, 143–152
 search for and interpretation of research, 71–74
- Diziko, Trish, 3
- “Do School District Takeovers Work?” (Wong and Shen), 61
- earmarked funding. See categorical funding
- Edmonds, Ron, 28
- education, in United States aims and goals, 257n5
 as cultural and ideological battleground, 52–54, 55 societal requests of, 137–139
 state of, 210–212
- education governors, 48
- Education Week*, 64
- educational marketplace. See also for-profit providers, educational governance and finance issues in, 143–144
 hardware, 147*t*, 149
 K–12 delivery, 146, 147*t*
 K–12 technology transfer, 153–155 pre-K delivery, 147*t*, 149
 procurement, 147*t*, 149–150
 professional development, 147*t*, 148–149 publishing, 147*t*, 148
 software, 147*t*, 148
 supply and demand issues in, 139–143*f*, 152–153, 157–158, 219–220 testing, 146–147*t*
 tutoring, 147*t*–148
- “effective schools” research movement, 28
- El Paso Collaborative for Excellence, 130
- Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, 23, 47, 113
- Elmore, Richard, 37–38, 65
- embodied knowing, 5
- equity (of access), 1–2, 24–25
- evidence-based practices. See also research-practice connections about, 6–7
 cross-institutional implementation, 212–215 meanings of, 112–115
 nonprofits’ use of, 112–115, 125–133, 133–135 types of evidence, 11–13
 vehicles promoting, 219–220
- expertise, 1–2
- federal policymakers
 categorical funding, 144–145
 implementation of funding programs, 26–27
 influence on public education, 20, 21–22, 141–142 influence on research practices, 113
 interest groups, 50–51
 policy vs. practice, 38–44, 210
 and private foundations, 20–22
 research as guide for, 54–57
 and school governance, 143–144
- financing. See funding and finance issues
- Finn, Chester, 53
- Follow Through Planned Variation, 27
- for-profit providers, educational
 about, 137
 capital issues, 150–152 growth market segments, 143*t*, 146–150
 school governance and finance issues, 143–144
 supply and demand issues, 139–143*f*, 152–153, 157–158, 219–220
- foundations, private and federal policymakers, 20–22
 influence on public education, 20
 and nonprofit organizations, 118–120, 122, 127–128
- Fuhrman, Susan, 64

- Fujita, Hidenori, 16, 189–207, 220
- Fund for Excellence, 130
- funding and finance issues of educational research, 181 federal and foundational influence, 20–23 and for-profit enterprise in education, 143–152 need for funding, 55
of nonprofits, 118–120, 127–128
- Gardner, John, 23
- Glaser, Robert, 234n29
- Goals 2000, 40–41
- Gomez, Louis, 15, 16–17, 45, 137–159, 209–227, 219
- Governors' Education Policy Advisors, 48
- Graham, Bob, 48
- grants. See foundations, private
- Gregg, Judd, 53
- Grogan, Paul, 60–61
- Handbook of Complementary Methods in Education Research* (AERA), 172
- hardware, 147*t*, 149
- Hargreaves, Andy, 10, 14–15, 89–109, 214, 215, 222
- Hargreaves, David, 10
- Hasci, Timothy, 54–56
- Headstart Planned Variation, 27
- Hentschke, Guilbert, 15, 137–159, 219
- high schools, public, 2
- homeschooling, 146
- Honig, Meredith, 14, 67–87, 213–214, 215, 218, 224
- “How People Learn: Bridging Research and Practice” (NAS), 219
- How Students Learn* (National Academy of Science), 33
- human learning, processes of, 32–33
- human service market, 120
- Hunt, Jim, 48
- implementation dips, 11
- Improving America's Schools Act, 40–41
- Inequality*, 24, 28
- Information Infrastructure Systems project, 217
- innovation, 122–123, 131–132, 142, 155
- Institute for Education Sciences, 52
- Institute for Learning, 82
- instruction. See also research-practice connections; teacher practice
adaptive instruction, 34–38, 234n29
ambitious instruction, 137–141 primacy of, 220–223
scripted vs. precise, 235n41
- instructional practice. See teacher practice
- instructional regimes, 43–46
- interest groups, 50–51
- International Baccalaureate Program, 130
- Japan, education practices in centralization, 192–193 characteristics of, 189–190 collaboration and R&D, 201–205, 202*f* knowledge development and dissemination, 190–192, 205–208 teachers in, 193–201, 197*f*
- Jenkins, James, 7–8
- Journal for Research in Mathematics Education*, 165
- Kardos, Susan, 14, 47–66, 213, 216, 218
- Kennedy, Ted, 53
- Keppel, Francis, 23
- Kilpatrick, Jeremy, 164
- Kirst, Michael, 65
- Knowledge Universe, 159
- LeapFrog Enterprises, Inc., 159
- LeapPads, 159
- learning organizations, 94
- learning progressions, 235n41
- learning society, 137–139
- Learning Walks, 82–83
- lesson design and implementation, 202–204
- local control, of education, 20, 21–22, 38–44, 47–48. See also districts, school

- loosely-coupled school, 138
- Lyon, Reid, 168
- MacArthur Teaching and Learning Network, 217
- market-based reform strategies, 53–54
- Massachusetts, 59–62, 147
- mathematics learning research, 33, 165–167
- media coverage of education, 52
- medical practice/research model, 10–11, 36, 89, 92–93, 210–211
- mentorships, 2
- metacognition, 166
- Miller, George, 53
- Mosher, Frederic A., 13, 19–46, 213, 215, 220
- A Nation at Risk*, 28, 48
- National Academy of Science, 11
- National Assessment of Education Progress (NAEP), 25–26, 28, 220
- National Center for Education Statistics, 220
- National Defense Education Act, 47
- National Science Foundation, 167
- National Writing Project, 225
- The Nation's Report Card*, 25–26
- New Orleans, 211–212
- New Standards Project, 41
- No Child Left Behind (NCLB), 6, 40–41, 47–48, 53, 92, 113, 216
- nonprofit organizations
- autonomy and accountability, 121–122, 131
 - demands on, 115–116
 - identity issues, 124, 132–133
 - innovation capacity, 122–123, 131–132
 - isomorphic behavior, 120–121, 129–130
 - promoting evidence-based practice, 112–115, 133–135
 - resource dependency, 118–120, 127–129
 - structural characteristics, 117, 125–127
 - use of evidence-based practices, 125–133
- NSF Program Solicitation NSF 04-553, 187
- O'Day, Jennifer, 39–41
- Odden, Allan, 65
- outsourcing, 157
- passive research programs, 28–30
- Patients Like Me, 225–226
- pedagogy. See instruction; teacher practice
- Penuel, Bill, 216
- Pew Forum on Education Reform, 41
- philanthropy, 21, 154–155
- Policy Analysis for California Education (PACE), 65–66, 218
- Policy Entrepreneurs and School Choice* (Mintrom), 236n9
- policy vs. practice, 38–44. See also federal policymakers
- polycymaking. See federal policymakers; state-level education polycymaking
- politics. See also federal policymakers; state-level education polycymaking
- district-level, 73–74, 79–81, 107, 240n28
 - federal-level, 20–21, 215
 - interest groups, 50–51
 - state-level, 55, 215
 - of teacher practice, 98–99, 107
- practice. See research-practice connections; teacher practice
- Preparing Teachers for a Changing World* (National Academy of Science), 11
- Preventing Reading Difficulties in Young Children*, 183
- Problem-centered Design, Engineering, and Development (DED) for Educational Improvement, 45–46
- problem-solving, 166
- process-product research, 91
- procurement, 147t, 149–150
- professional development. See teacher training and professional development

- professional learning communities (PLCs), 103–108, 222
- Project STAR (Tennessee), 57–58
- public education, 2
- publications, 205–206
- publishing, educational, 147*t*, 148, 219
- RAND study, 26, 27
- randomized trials, issues with, 7, 9–10, 13, 34, 37, 89, 92, 169, 176, 178, 184–187, 224–225
- Ravitch, Diane, 53
- Reading First, 6
- reading instruction, research areas, 33
- Reagan, Ronald, 48
- Recommendations Regarding Research Priorities* (NAE), 186
- reform support organizations, local, 126–127
- research, educational. See also evidence-based practices; research-practice connections
- active approach, 30–31
 - assumptions regarding, 12
 - constraints on progress, 167–172
 - cultural differences with policymakers, 62–66
 - defined, 163
 - demand for evidence-based, 51–53
 - districts' use of, 67–81
 - encouraging use of at district level, 81–87
 - funding, 181
 - innovation, 122–123, 131–132
 - issues of specificity, 31–34
 - in Japan, 201–205, 202*f*
 - key topics for, 5
 - landmark studies, 22–27
 - passive approach, 28–30
 - as policymaking guide, 54–57
 - preparation of researchers, 172–174
 - randomized trials, issues with, 7, 9–10, 13, 34, 37, 89, 92, 169, 176, 178, 184–187, 224–225
 - roles in district decisionmaking process, 74–81
 - state of theory and method, 164–166
- research-practice connections. See also evidence-based practices; research, educational; teacher practice
- characteristics of successful, 174–181
 - contextual issues, 32, 57–58, 99–100, 114, 131, 140
 - future actions for improving, 183–188
 - instructional regimes for implementing, 43–46
 - Jenkins Framework, 7–8
 - nature teacher practice, 91–103
 - overview, 215–217
 - policy and practice tensions, 38–44, 210
 - supply and demand issues in, 4–6, 139–143*f*, 152–153, 157–158, 219–220
 - variability of effects, 9–10
- researchers, educational, 171–174, 179–180, 190–191, 218–219
- resource allocation, 55
- “Rigorous Evidence: The Key to Progress in Education?” (forum), 168
- Riley, Dick, 48
- Rockefeller, John D., 21
- Romney, Mitt, 59–62
- Roschelle, Jeremy, 9–10
- Ruminations on Reinventing an R&D Capacity for Educational Improvement* (Bryk and Gomez), 45
- Schoenfeld, Alan, 16, 161–188, 217
- school choice, 31, 53–54, 146, 147*t*, 149, 236*n*9
- Schoolmate* (software), 104–105
- schools. See education, in United States
- Schools Interoperability Framework (SIF), 155
- Schwartz, Robert, 14, 41, 47–66, 213, 216, 218
- science instruction, research areas, 33
- Science of Learning Centers, 173

- scientific approaches, to research, 164
- Scientific Research in Education*, 169, 183
- SimCalc, 9–10
- Simon, Herbert, 164
- Smith, Marshall S., 13, 19–46, 24, 39–41, 213, 215, 220
- Smylie, Mark, 15, 111–135, 219–220
- social promotion, 55–56
- The Sociology of Teaching* (Waller), 94
- software, 147*t*, 148
- standardized testing, 146–147*t*
- standards-based reform, 40–42
- Starting Out Right* (NRC), 183
- state-level education policymaking
 - about, 48–49
 - example interventions, 58–62
 - information needs and sources, 49–53
 - Policy Analysis for California Education (PACE), 65–66
 - policy vs. practice, 210
 - research as guide for, 54–57, 62–66
 - staff qualifications, 52
- Stein, Mary Kay, 14, 67–87, 213–214, 215, 218, 224
- Stipek, Deborah, 16–17, 209–227
- Stone-Johnson, Carrie, 10, 14–15, 89–109, 214, 215, 222
- Study of Equal Educational Opportunity (SEEO), 24–25
- Taking Science to School* (National Academy of Science), 33
- teacher practice
 - advances in, 166–167
 - as cultural practice, 101–103
 - as emotional practice, 96–97
 - as experiential practice, 94–96
 - as intellectual practice, 93–94
 - in Japan, 200–201
 - as moral and ethical practice, 97–98
 - policy vs. practice, 38–44
 - as political practice, 98–99
 - research into, 28–29
 - schools as professional learning communities, 103–108
 - as situated practice, 99–101, 214
 - as technical practice, 91–93
- teacher training and professional development, 11, 147*t*, 148–149, 192, 193–200, 197*f*
- technological infrastructure, 70
- Technology Access Foundation, 3
- technology transfer, 113, 132, 153–155
- Tennessee class size study, 8–9, 57–58
- testing marketplace, 146–147
- think tanks, 53–54
- TIMSS (Third International Math and Science Survey), 28
- tracking, 29
- tutoring, 147*t*–148
- United States
 - educational access and effectiveness in, 2–3
- variability of effects, 9–10
- venture philanthropy, 154–155
- Waller, Willard, 94
- Weiss, Carol, 50, 216
- Weiss, Janet, 16–17, 209–227
- What Works Clearinghouse, 6–7, 70, 155–156, 184–185, 260*n*48, 260*n*61
- Whitehurst, Grover, 4–5
- Wilson, Pete, 58–59