

Contents

Preface	vii
INTRODUCTION
Equity, Excellence, Elephants, and Evidence	1
John D. Bransford, Nancy J. Vye, Deborah J. Stipek, Louis M. Gomez, and Diana Lam
CHAPTER 1
The Role of Research in Education Reform from the Perspective of Federal Policymakers and Foundation Grantmakers	19
Frederic A. Mosher and Marshall S. Smith
CHAPTER 2
Research-Based Evidence and State Policy	47
Robert B. Schwartz and Susan M. Kardos
CHAPTER 3
What's the Evidence on Districts' Use of Evidence?	67
Cynthia E. Coburn, Meredith I. Honig, and Mary Kay Stein
CHAPTER 4
Evidence-Informed Change and the Practice of Teaching	89
Andy Hargreaves and Corrie Stone-Johnson
CHAPTER 5
Nonprofit Organizations and the Promotion of Evidence-Based Practice in Education	111
Mark A. Smylie and Thomas B. Corcoran
CHAPTER 6
K–12 Education and the Role of For-Profit Providers	137
Louis M. Gomez and Guilbert C. Hentschke

CHAPTER 7
Instructional Research and the Improvement of Practice 161
Alan H. Schoenfeld

CHAPTER 8
How Craft Knowledge of Teaching Is Generated and Disseminated in Japan 189
Hidenori Fujita

CHAPTER 9
Toward a Deeper Understanding of the Educational Elephant: Concluding Thoughts 209
Louis M. Gomez , Janet A. Weiss, Deborah J. Stipek, and John D. Bransford

Notes 229

About the Contributors 265

Index 271